Join our most popular tour,
based on the best-selling book,
Band of Brothers by Museum
founder Stephen E. Ambrose, featuring original cast members from the award-winning HBO miniseries.

Kehlsteinhaus, or Eagle's Nest, near Berchtesgaden, Germany.

Dear Norwich Alumni and Friends,

In 1980, Nick Mueller (President and CEO Emeritus of The National WWII Museum) persuaded his best friend and University of New Orleans colleague Stephen Ambrose to lead their first overseas tour – a trip from the Normandy D-Day beaches to the Rhine River. For the next 20 years, the duo continued to run tours while Ambrose began collecting hundreds of oral histories from D-Day veterans, including interviews with surviving members of the famed Easy Company.

Of course, the rest is history. Ambrose's research and interviews led to the best-selling book Band of Brothers, which would years later be adapted into the HBO miniseries that brought the story of Easy Company to millions of viewers worldwide. Perhaps no single work, in the past three decades, has had such an impact, or made such an imprint on the American memory of World War II.

Ambrose and Mueller's passion for preserving the stories of D-Day veterans led to the idea of building a National D-Day Museum in New Orleans. Their overseas tours tracing the wartime route of the "Band of Brothers" helped raise funds for the Museum, which would open in 2000 and quickly expand its mission to include the entire war effort.

Today, the Easy Company tour is the most popular educational travel program offered by The National WWII Museum. The exclusive itinerary features sites referenced in the Easy Company veteran interviews conducted by Ambrose and his team at the Eisenhower Center for American Studies. This journey remains core to the Museum's mission – offering rare access to sites, extraordinary guides, and quaint regional accommodations. As the authority on World War II, the Museum draws upon its collection of oral histories, photographs, and artifacts to deliver the most memorable, emotional, educational, and extraordinary travel experiences.

We hope you'll join us on this personal journey to the beaches, bridges, cities, and villages where the legendary Easy Company fought the crucial D-Day battles and changed the course of history. Every tour features an original cast member from the miniseries, making this tour a truly unique experience.

Sincerely,

Brian Doyle
